CHARLEROI ENROLLMENT IS AHEAD OF DONORA

The enrollment of the Donora public schools this year is 2,521 being the largest enrollment in the history of the schools of that town. The High school has an enrollment of 264 pupils. Charleroi's enrollment is over 2,600 with prospects of even a greater number.

MODEL SHOWS WERE FEATURES OF EXHIBIT

A feature of the fashion show held in Turner hall last week, and which space prevented a more generous notice, was the display of gowns and wraps by the various dealers of Charleroi. These gowns and wraps were shown on living models and many comments of a very complimentary character were heard on every hand. Those who made these displays were Wayne, Miller, Berryman, Meltz & Zalenski, Fau and Roth, all of whom showed gowns of the most exquisite designs, as well as wraps of the latest creations. These model exhibits were features which were greatly appreciated by the patrons of the exposition, and if the affair is duplicated next year, no doubt this phase of the exposition will be elaborated upon.

KILLED ON STREET BY ELECTRIC SHOCK

John Brancha, aged about 60 years, was electrocuted on Second street, Monongahela, last Saturday afternoon about one o'clock. A few minutes previous to the fatal accident a high tension line of the West Penn Power company had broken on Second street, below Main, the ends of the broken wire lying on the pavement. Brancha attempted to move one end of the broken wire, first taking a board for the purpose of pushing it off the sidewalk, later reaching out with his right hand to take hold of the wire. He had placed his handkerchief in his hand before attempting to take hold of the live wire, but this did not protect him. As soon as he touched it he received the full voltage of 6600, the shock resulting in almost instant death. Brancha was a single man.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES SENT TO THE HOSPIAL

The fruits and vegetables that were in display at the agricultural show held in Turner Hall, and which were not called for or taken away by the exhibitors, were turned over to the Charleroi-Monessen hospital by Mr. Derby.

Additional Road Fund Is Given to This County

Of the $1,000,000 township reward fund provided by the 1919 legislature, a total of $221,651.17 was not applied for. This sum has been redistributed among certain townships of twenty-four Pennsylvania counties, which will now get a greater portion of the reward fund than they would have received had all Pennsylvania townships applied for and received what was due them.

The legislature of 1919 made an appropriation of $1,000,000 to be distributed by the State Highway Department to the second-class townships of Pennsylvania as a reward for work actually accomplished on township roads. Some months ago announcement was made of the proration of this sum. At this time it was told that townships must make application for their portion of the fund, and these applications would be examined by the Township Division of the Highway Department.

The $221,651.17 for which no applications were made has been newly appropriated. Of this amount $14,984.81 comes to Washington county and $10,119.61 goes to Greene county.

FIREMEN TO STAGE EXCITING BALL GAME

A base ball game will be played at the local park Tuesday evening, between the married and single men of the Charleroi fire department. The teams will be captained by Carl McGuire for the single men and Roland Gass for the married men. The contest is expected to be featured by several Babe Ruth stunts, as quite a number of the players have expressed their belief that they will put the ball over the river bank. Game will be called at 6 o'clock and the public is invited. Admission will be free and there should be a good attendance to encourage the local sluggers.

DEATH WAS DUE TO A MISTAKE

That Olive Thomas, movie star, died from a dose of poison taken accidentally was the verdict on Sunday of the Paris police department official who in France does the duty of coroner, after hearing the evidence as to the circumstances of her death. He is expected to sign the papers today releasing the body for burial. Arrangements are being made for embalming, as it is the intention of her husband, Jack Pickford, to take the body with him to America on the steamer Mauretania, on September 18, for burial.

Even the screen has never shown so tragic a history as this of the young movie queen whose death on Saturday ended five days of excruciating torture. To the last she wanted passionately to live. When speechless and blind she seemed to be warding off with her hands the spectre of death which haunted her bedside.

NEW MOTOR CAR CO. OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The Vetter Motor Car company, composed of R. O. Vetter and William Vetter, opened for business this morning at 415 Fallowfield avenue. The room formerly occupied by the Vetter clothing store has been formed into a show room for automobiles and auto trucks, where the company will constantly keep on view the Hudson, Grant and Essex automobiles, and the Service and Grant trucks. In addition they will handle Miller and Goodyear tires, while they are also prepared to supply customers with the best grades of Atlantic gas and oil. In addition to handling autos, trucks, tires and gas, they will also have on hand a full line of automobile accessories, thus making their depot a center for all supplies of this character.

George Barry has been secured as a salesman to look after the Monessen district and territory on the east side of the river, while J. E. Riggs and Wm. Vetter will take care of the territory on this side. R. O. Vetter will remain at the store and have general management of the business.

The Vetter Motor Car company have added a very desirable line of cars and trucks, and no doubt they will find a very profitable field for their endeavors in placing these popular cars. The Essex only recently made a record run with United States mail between New York and San Francisco, the machines making the run in a little over four days. The Grant and Hudson cars are also popular, while the trucks handled are likewise capable of the severest duties which may be placed upon them.

The regular meeting of the American Association of Engineers will be held Wednesday Sept. 15 at 7:30 at Wilbur Hotel. All Engineers are invited to attend. Bring an engineer with you.

John N. O'Neil.
President.

The numbers selected by the committee from tickets given out at Agricultural and Style Show were 3085, 3550, 2999. Any person holding one of these numbers is requested to present ticket at Douglas Business College to receive prize. 84t1*

REPUBLICAN WOMEN MAKE FIRST MOVE IN CAMPAIGN

PREPARING FOR TRAFFIC ON ALLEGHENY RIVER

The American Bridge Company has four barges on the way for the LaBelle Iron Works at Steubenville. The contract calls for 40 barges, each measuring 140x26x10, to be made of armor plate steel. These barges will be used exclusively in the Allegheny river trade, towing coal from the mines of the company to the LaBelle plant at Steubenville. The LaBelle company is also having two modern towboats constructed for this trade.

CONSTABLE UNDER BAIL FOR SHOOTING

Allegheny county detectives as well as the coroner's office made an investigation on Sunday into the killing Saturday night of John S. Foster, a coal miner of Bunola, by James Rue, a constable of Forward township, Allegheny county, during an alleged attack on the constable and his wife, who were motoring on the roadway between Bunola and Monongahela. Foster, according to Rue, grabbed Mrs. Rue while the constable was battling with two other men, who escaped. After the probe Rue was arrested and released on $5,000 bail.

According to Rue's story two men stopped him, saying there was a wreck in the middle of the road. Suddenly one of them struck Rue in the face, he said, and he got out of the car to give battle. While fighting with the two men he heard his wife scream and saw her struggling with a third man. Running to her, he said, he struck the man with his flashlight, then drew his revolver and struck him on the head twice. At the second blow the revolver was accidentally discharged and a bullet passed through the man's left arm. Rue started to a doctor's office, but the man died on the way to Monongahela, where he was recognized as Foster. He leaves a wife and three children.

BRICKS, CENTURY OLD, FOUND IN A CHIMNEY

A common red brick was taken from an old frame house at the corner of Market and Fourt streets, Fayette City, which is undergoing repairs, that had the year 1828 inscribed on one side. The brick is in a good state of preservation and is held as a souvenir.

Margaret Jane Kohut.

Margaret Jane, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kohut, died at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kendrick, 1100 Meadow avenue, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Funeral from the home of the grandparents Tuesday morning, with services in St. Jerome's church at 9 o'clock, interment in Belle Vernon cemetery.

Mrs. O'Neil Appoints Executive Officers for County Committee

ENCOURAGED BY THE OUTLOOK

Preparatory to starting an active campaign to further the interests of the Republican party in Washington county among the women, Mrs. Lillian Hill O'Neil, of Charleroi, chairman of the woman's committee of the Republican party visited Washington on Saturday last and announced several important appointments.

Mrs. R. W. Taylor of Washington was named by her as secretary of the county committee and Miss Rachel M. Warrick also of Washington as treasurer. Mrs. C. L. Crawford of Washington, was chosen as chairman of the executive committee, while activities in Washington proper will be conducted by Miss Alice E. Jones, who was chosen by Mrs. O'Neil to be chairman of the town committee of that borough.

This is the first important action by the Republican women to herald definite action on their part in the coming campaign. Mrs. O'Neil is enthusiastic and in the near future will call a meeting of the entire committee at which time a definite campaign will be outlined.

Mrs. O'Neil reports that all members of the committee are very enthusiastic over the outlook in the county, and declares that the women will rally to the support of the Republican standard and help bring victory to the party "which has always served its country to the best advantage, whenever called upon."

It is likely that other district chairmen will be appointed during the campaign to look after the interests of the party in the present campaign.

DEATH FOLLOWS AN ACCIDENT TO BOY

Mike Ptocy, the nine-year-old son of Martin Ptocy, of Coal Bluff, whose feet were so badly mangled by a train on which he was trying to steal a ride several days ago, that they had to be amputated, died last Saturday in the Memorial hospital at Monongahela.

After the accident, which happened on August 28, young Ptocy's companions took him to the river and put his mangled feet in the water. When passersby discovered the boys the Ptocy lad was hurried to the hospital, where it was found that amputation was necessary. Tetanus developed in a few days and death soon followed.

CROWDING IMMIGRANTS

The World War practically stopped immigration and for many months after the armistice the outflow from this country to Europe was far greater than the inflow therefrom. In consequence sime writers rather hastily explained that prohibition was the chief cause of the phenomenon. They said that Europeans accustomed to beer and wine as a part of their daily diet would not come to this land of perpetual thirst and that prohibition was driving many of the foreign-born back to Europe But the figures for immigration during the last year have pretty well shattered this argument and shown that you never can tell. Though some of the immigrants now crowding into this country may not be aware that thirst awaits them, it is altogether probable that the great majority are informed of the fact that the Unieed States has gone "dry."

It appears that in the twelve months ending June 30 last about 800,000 immigrants gained admission to this country and now they are reported to be arriving at Ellis Island at the rate of 5,000 a day. So great is the rush that steamship lines it is said, have booked for a year in advance all the passengers they can possibly accommodate and could book twice as many more. The recent order for the reorganiation of the Immigration Bureau is supposed to be the result of this great and possibly record-breaking increase in the immigration tide. In spite of the literary test immigrants are crowding into this country and the demands of the labor unions may again make further restrictions a political issue. In any event it is evident that prohibition is no bar and that Europeans regard something to eat as mostly more important than something to drink.

HEALTH WITHOUT FRESH AIR.

The hygienists have made a perfectly good case for fresh air and have been so successful in their propaganda that in the newer houses sleeping porches are the rule rather than the exception. Yet it remains true that many people keep in good health without the assistance of much fresh air and that many more still cling to the old time fear of "night air," sleeping with their windows closed. Sailors, for example, after exposure to bad weather on deck, take delight in shutting themselves up as long as may be in a thick, tobacco laden atmosphere. We read that experiments in British coal mines show that miners also require less fresh air than do people less trained and accustomed to hard physical exertion.

From such facts of human experience it is concluded that through hard exercise the body acquires the ability to get the needed oxygen from a smaller quantity of pure air and can even be nourished on impure air. Only in this way can observers account for the good health of miners and other vigorously employed persons condemned to breathe bad air much of the time. Such persons even seem to lose nothing by sitting or sleeping in stuffy closed rooms. The facts observed show that, while plenty of fresh air is needed by the average man, nature—including the human body—possesses a marvelous power of adjustment to circumstances.

Maybe Governor Cox and his followers hope to keep the Senate committee so busy following "leads" furnished by them in order to locate that Republican "slush" fund, by means of which they were going to "buy an underhold on the Presidency," that they will not have time to investigate the financial end of the Democratic campaign. However, we note that Mr. Gerard, financial managers for the Democrats, has been called to appear before the committee, and then we may be able to learn who is paying for the special train with which Mr. Cox is touring the country, as well as other Democratic expense. In fact, Mr. Gerard may be able to give a great deal of valuable information, among which he might disclose how much the office holders are being assessed to help along the Cox entourage.

Chicago Tribune—Governor Cox says Lincoln "fought a war over the purely moral issue of slavery." Lincoln fought for the preservation of the union, threatened at that time by disintegration, through the state rights doctrine of Mr. Cox's party, just as it is threatened today by the internationalism of Mr. Wilson which Mr. Cox has undertaken to support and continue.

HERE AND THERE

St. Louis Times—All that parading and shouting over the news of the armistice arose from the hope that the war was over and that our boys would come home. Nobody was celebrating the prospect of keeping them in Europe to put down uprisings forever.

SCHOOL BOARD HAS UNUSUAL TROUBLES

The Monessen board has two problems confronting it which are giving the members a great deal of concern. These questions will be considered at a meeting to be held Tuesday evening, at which time a satisfactory solution is hoped for.

Twice during the past few months the school board has advertised for bids to supply the various school houses in the borough with coal, but neither time was there any response. As the season is rapidly approaching when a supply of coal is absolutely necessary, the board will endeavor to secure some one to furnish the desired amount.

Then the 117 school teachen are having trouble in getting settled for the year. It appears that the lunch feature is bothering them most. Enough boarding houses may not be found on the hill to accommodate them, while the facilities for getting something to eat are either crowded or unsatisfactory. Some consideration may be given by the board to take over one or more of the residences acquired with the Junior high school site, and making living quarters for teachers.

CLAIM PRISONER WAS IMPLICATED IN ROBBERY

Michael Nestor, aged 20, of Cleveland, O., said by City Detectives John Kerr and Joseph Moriarity to have been a member of a gang of three men who several weeks ago held up and killed a paymaster of a large business firm in Cleveland, was arrested in Roscoe on Sunday, September 12.

According to one of the Cleveland officers Nester was in company with the two other men at the time of the robbery and killing. After shooting the paymaster the thieves escaped with the payroll amounting to $2,900.

Cleveland detectives later captured the three bandits. Nester made his escape from the city jail and came to Roscoe, where he secured work in the mines under the name of Frank Brown. The Cleveland officers received a "tip" that Nester was in Roscoe, and they made the trip and arrested him. Nester denied that he had been a party to the shooting. He was taken back to Cleveland by one of the officers.

COKEBURG BOY DIES FROM INJURY

Daniel Pceck, aged 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Pceck, of Cokeburg Junction, was so badly shocked from the experience of being run over by an automobile truck that he died in the Memorial hospital at Monongahela Saturday night about 8 o'clock.

The boy was riding on a truck of the Acme Coal company and was thrown off and under the wheels of the machine. One leg was fractured and he was at once taken to the hospital for treatment The broken leg was his most serious hurt, his death being due to the shock of the mishap. Deputy Coroner James V. McDonough of Beallsville was notified and took charge of the body.

ASKS RESTORATION OF OLD STANDARDS

An appeal to employes of the Pennsylvania System has been issued by President Samuel Rea. The railroad's employes are called upon to restore the old Pennsylvania railroad service standards, of which the system was at one time so proud. Mr. Rea's appeal in part says:

"We are intrusted with the task of maintaining and operating efficiently and economically the largest traffic-carrying railroad system in this country, and one which, owing to its situation with respect to our indispensable industries and mines and our greatest centers of population, is in a peculiar sense vital to the life of the nation. Every man and woman in the service of this railroad has a district, individual share in this great responsibility.

"It is perfectly natural for the public, which pays our wages, to expect a fair return, both in form of much better transportation service than we have been able to render in the last two or three years, and in a full measure of courteous consideration on the part of every individual officer and employe toward whom we serve, such as will restore the old Pennsylvania railroad standards of which we were once so justly proud."

Philadelphia North American—Protests are being heard because Newton Baker franked his partisan speech before the Ohio Democratic convention thru the mails. But each copy would have cost Mr. Baker 16 cents in postage an dhe doubtless felt it was not worth it.

Dubuque Times-Journal—Candidate Cox says in his speech of acceptance that he is opposed to consumption taxes. Later on in the same speech, he says he favors a small tax on every going concern. Is not this a consumption tax?

Recently the Moslem authorities in Anatolia issued a proclamation that Bolshevism is in line with Islamism—or words to that effect—and within a few days 400 Armenians were massacred at that point, the men being shot and the women and children being burned to death in a church. Bolshevism appears to be particularly deadly when transplanted.
